

the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved time at home because we are no longer interrupted during dinner.

Indiana's law has been effective - we used to receive calls every day and now receive them rarely

I realize telemarketers are just trying to earn a paycheck, but they are taking advantage of people that don't know any different, and annoying those of us who do. Please do NOT rescind this law
